

HARVEY HARVEST SHOPFRONT COMPETITION

HELP US PAINT THE TOWN ORANGE!

Attention Harvey and Wokalup business owners! Decorate your front-facing windows or entryways in celebration of the spirit of the Harvey Harvest Festival. We encourage you to make orange the star of the show, and incorporate elements such as local produce, and cultural themes that relate to harvesting. The competition is free to enter and will run from Monday, 2 March to Sunday, 8 March 2026. First place prize is $1000 and second place prize is $250! Winners will be announced on Monday, 9 March 2026 and a photo of their display will be shared on our Facebook page. Visit our website to enter.

Bite-sized updates from the Shire of Harvey

Yarloop Mural

We're seeking an artist to develop a mural that reflects the character, and identity of Yarloop. The project includes a community engagement workshop. Expressions of Interest close 28 February 2026. To submit an EOI, visit harvey.wa.gov.au

Drop-in sessions have launched!

You're invited to drop in for a chat about whether the Shire of Harvey should be become a city. Informal drop-in sessions are being held across the Harvey Region throughout February, giving you the chance to speak face to face with relevant staff. Designed to be accessible and welcoming, the sessions will feature detailed displays about the Harvey Region, and showcase research the Shire has undertaken throughout December and January. You will also be invited to complete a short survey and explore ways to receive Shire news and updates. A community feedback report will be prepared for Council after the consultation period ends. Scan the QR code to find more information and complete the survey.
