Council Nomination Profile – Charmaine May

A proud Australind resident for over 20 years, I bring extensive experience in governance, community development, and regional partnerships. I am passionate about inclusive, community-led decision-making that reflects local needs and supports prosperity across the Shire of Harvey.

My current roles include Chair of the SW Police Advisory Group and Yaka Dandjoo Committee, CEO of Goomburrup Aboriginal Corporation, and contributor to BGCCI, SWDC, and local government collaborations.

I offer strong governance, financial, and engagement skills, and a deep commitment to safety, youth empowerment, and regional development. I will work to ensure fair representation and strong community voice in all decisions.

It would be an honour to serve with integrity and accountability.
