Things to be aware of before applying:
1. By registering for eRates, you will NOT receive an annual or instalment rates notice by post. 2. There can only be ONE email address for each notice or property. 3. If more than one owner of the property applies to receive an electronic notice, the eRates system will by default send the notice to last registered email address. 4. The registration process will automatically close fourteen (14) days prior to the issue date of any rate notice and re-open automatically after the issue date. 5. If the registration has not been received in time for when the next notice is issued, you will automatically receive your rates notice by post. 6. If you sell your property or no longer wish to receive eRates, you must contact the Shire to cancel your registration.
