Why we are collecting your information

Your personal information is collected for the purpose of:

- processing, managing and determining applications for development, subdivision, structure plans, scheme amendments and local development plans
- communicating with you about your application or enquiry

How your information may be disclosed

Your personal information may be used and disclosed for the purposes described above.

We may disclose personal information to:

- State Government agencies, statutory authorities and government-owned corporations where consultation or referral is required
- service providers and utilities, such as Harvey Water, where relevant to an application
- members of the public, where planning applications are required to be advertised for public comment
- Council and the public, where application information is included in Council agendas and related documents, which may be made publicly available

Disclosures will only occur where required or authorised by law.

How we're authorised to collect your information

We collect, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with applicable laws, including:

- the Planning and Development Act 2005.

Consequences of not providing information

If you choose not to provide the required information, the Shire may be unable to:

- process your application or respond to your enquiry
